

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

GOOD EVENING FRIENDS AND COLLEAGUES,

Welcome to the 2019 Rocky Mountain Emmy® Awards!

THIS YEAR IS SPECIAL IN MANY WAYS. I am honored, humbled, appreciative and excited for the opportunity to serve you. Our immediate past president, Theresa Maher, left some big, however stylish, shoes to fill, but stepped up to be our Event Chair this year. The heavy lifting for this event is accomplished throughout the year by our extremely talented Board of Governors and our exceptional Executive Director, Lara Gates. None of what you see tonight would be possible without the hard work and dedication of this team, which you have selected to lead this great organization.

In addition to this evening's events and the process leading up to them, one of our other priorities is to ensure we have a diverse group of board members, inclusive of other markets outside of the Phoenix area, as well as from all corners of our industry and craft. I, myself, am a prime example of the latter, coming from a non-traditional, professionally related background. If you have an interest in serving, we want you! Elections are coming in October. Another priority is to focus on our students (our future leaders and peers) through our educational programs, scholarships and the Student Production Awards. A new focus this year is to pay homage to, and memorialize, the history of our chapter and its members. Please check out our web page to learn more about our history and the great people that helped us arrive where we are today. Many of them are here tonight.

It is nice to spend an evening together celebrating excellence. We can enjoy each other's company, recognize our members who have gone above and beyond for more than 25 years, and encourage students to be the best generation of television and broadcast professionals possible.

Remember, tonight is about all of you. We celebrate our nominees, recipients and honorees. As a nominee, you have been recognized as excelling in your craft to create something that stands above the rest. On behalf of the entire Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter and your Board of Governors, we would like to congratulate you. We have a full night planned with the very talented, Gary Valentine, as our host. If your schedule permits, please join us at our after-party, located just across the front courtyard.

Thank you all for being here tonight to celebrate together. Have a safe and awesome evening!

DOUG MUMMERT

President, Phoenix, Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences

FROM THE AWARDS CHAIR

THE APTLY NAMED ED BLISS ONCE SAID, "The pursuit of excellence is gratifying and healthy."

The people in the ballroom tonight must be very grateful and in good spirits. They are part of a profession that pursues excellence every day. Every nominee tonight has been honored for excellent work.

Welcome to the 2019 Rocky Mountain Southwest Emmy Gala. Looking forward to a great evening at our sumptuous new digs at the Omni Montelucia Resort.

Year 42 of our chapter has been another record-breaking season. On the professional side, we had a record 1031 entries. Our Student Production Award entries revealed an even more exciting development. 245 submissions, another chapter record. We should be very proud of our outreach to young, aspiring broadcasters. Encouraging the people who will be the future of our industry is one of our chapter's primary goals.

The Awards process is time-consuming. It goes from the Call For Entries in March through the judging that ends mid-summer to the final determination of nominees and recipients. We continue to ensure that every entry is vetted; and is judged by at least seven peers from several different chapters around the country. It's an arduous process but we hope it ensures that your entries are considered both fairly and professionally.

You are here reaping the benefits of our awards process. The process doesn't work unless we all participate. Please judge when asked and encourage your peers to do the same. We can't make this happen without you!

Remember that the Awards Committee is here to help. We will respond to all inquiries and questions and will guide everyone who needs assistance through the process.

Thank you to the Awards Committee. Your assistance and input was another chapter record. Much appreciated. Without you all it couldn't get done.

Special thanks to our Executive Director Lara Gates. Her diligence and work ethic is unmatched. Her service to this committee, to the Board of Governors and especially to the members of this region, is unmatched.

Best wishes on a very excellent evening.

GARY VALENTINE

GARY VALENTINE IS A LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK

NATIVE who has been headlining comedy clubs and theaters for the past 20 years. After an appearance at the Montreal Comedy Festival in 1997, he headed to Los Angeles, and quickly landed a hosting job on the NBC show, "Friday Night Videos." In addition, he did spots on various talk shows performing standup, including "Late Night with Conan O'Brien," among others.

Gary was on the CBS comedy, "Kevin Can Wait," for two seasons as Kyle Gable, Kevin's fireman brother. He also appeared as Danny on "The King of Queens" for nine years on CBS, for which he also wrote several episodes. Additional television credits include, "Fargo," "Chelsea Lately," "Men of a Certain Age," co-host of "The X Show," and his own standup special, "Comedy Central Presents: Gary Valentine." Gary also starred as George Bannister in a series of TV movies for ABC Family, "The Dog Who Saved Christmas," and "The Dog Who Saved Christmas Vacation."

His feature film credits include, "Paul Blart: Mall Cop," "Paul Blart: Mall Cop 2," "Here Comes the Boom," "I Now Pronounce You Chuck and Larry," "Zookeeper," "Stuck on You," "Poolboy: Drowning Out the Fury," and the independent short, "Alive N' Kickin'."

He is an avid golfer, and plays in several golf charity tournaments each year, including BMW/Synnex Pro7Am, "Monday After the Masters," hosted by Hootie and the Blowfish, and "The Drive," hosted by Russell Wilson and Casey Kahne. In addition, he is actively involved with the JVK Foundation, named after his father, which supports various charities, including Retinitis Pigmentosa.

Gary is married, and lives on Long Island.

CHARLIE BARNES

IN SUMMER OF 1979, while registering for classes necessary for the completion of a master's degree in English, Charlie found that the Theatre Department at UNM was offering a class in tap dancing. With visions of Fred Astaire gliding through her brain, she signed up for the tap class. It was a very small class, only five students at the outset, she got to know her instructor, a hoofer from Great Britain with some BBC experience, quite well. As it turned out, he was trying to start some classes in Television Production that would be in the Theatre Arts department rather than the Journalism department, and needed bodies to fill the seats for fall semester. He agreed not to interfere with Charlie's graduate work if hers could be one of the bodies needed. She acquiesced to his proposal, and brought along a few friends during the first semester of the endeavor.

The classes were enjoyed by all. At the end of the fall semester, the hoofer had procured five unpaid internships for the spring semester: three at the PBS station managed by UNM and two at KGGM TV, the CBS affiliate in Albuquerque. At first, Charlie declined any internship based on the work she had to do in her graduate program, but when one of the people who had accepted a KGGM internship dropped out of the program, and with a renewed promise not to interfere with her graduate work, Charlie took the KGGM internship so that it would not be lost to the hoofer forever. During the term of the internship, Charlie was hired as a master control operator at KGGM, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JAY CRANDALL

FOR MORE THAN 30 YEARS JAY CRANDALL has been a dedicated journalist willing to push the boundaries. His Emmy-awarded work at KTVK-TV includes producing morning and evening newscasts, hard-hitting feature stories and long-form specials. Working at Arizona's top-rated independent station allowed him the freedom to take creative risks and use his skill as a wordsmith to produce Hollywood-style stories and special features.

Jay began his career as an intern and although he was first hired full-time as a videotape editor, his sights were set on writing and producing both behind-the-scenes and in front of the camera. As the producer of KTVK's first ever morning newscast, Jay incorporated many elements which are now standard in morning television, such as the utilization of a weather person as an "out-and-about" reporter and bringing experts in studio as regular guest segments. Soon after, Jay led KTVK's 5 p.m. newscast to the number one ratings spot. He then moved to special projects where he developed fast-paced celebrity, lifestyle and fashion news stories which not only helped define KTVK's signature style but inspired colleagues as they moved on to produce nationally syndicated shows such as Extra and TMZ. Jay also developed and produced KTVK's first and only political talk show, "Politics Unplugged," which continues to broadcast on 3TV.

As a special projects producer Jay helped lead the transition to digital editing and crafted elements including the signature show open for Good Evening Arizona and unique segments like "Worth a Listen" featuring up and coming musicians. Jay produced several Emmynominated and awarded specials including "The Lion King: Behind the Mask," "Phoenix Rising," "Granite Mountain Hotshots: Heroes and Heartbreak" and "Rachel's Challenge." In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, Jay traveled to New Orleans where he produced and reported live on-the-scene and from the set providing residents with valuable information in the wake of that disaster.

Currently, Jay works as a Public Information Officer for the city of Glendale, Arizona where he continues to enterprise and produce stories for Glendale Media and the city's social media platforms still seeing himself first and foremost as a journalist bringing viewers information to enrich their lives.

MARY MORSE VASQUEZ

MARY MORSE VASQUEZ GREW UP IN THE MIDWEST but moved to Arizona at the age of 18. During her senior year at NAU she heard about an internship and job opportunity at Channel 10, the then CBS affiliate - now FOX 10. Little did she know walking through the doors on that first day that this TV station would be a major part of her life for the next 33 years.

Morse Vasquez spent a few years producing evening newscasts, but soon realized that morning television was her true calling. As Executive Producer of the morning show from 1994 to 2019, she worked with what she calls some of the most talented, hard-working people in the industry. "This amazing career provided me the opportunity to write and produce stories about events that have shaped our lives and for that, I will always be grateful," said Morse Vasquez

Recently retired, she no longer sets the alarm for 2:30 a.m. (woohoo!) She now watches the news and morning show from her home in Payson where she lives with her husband.

MIKE SAUCEDA

"MIKE SAUCEDA HAS BEEN ON THE FRONT LINES of all of the big stories in Arizona for more than 35 years," says Allysa Adams, the Executive Producer of News and Public Affairs at Arizona PBS. "He knows all of the players, all of the nuances of the stories and how the history of the state plays into each story line. He always runs to the big stories. Dropping whatever is going on in his life and making sure the team he is working with has what they need to get the word out. He is a true journalist in both his instincts and his craft. He checks and double checks facts, maintains a laser focus on the topic at hand and he is as quick a writer as anyone I've ever seen. But more importantly Mike is the guy in the field who will give others advice, hold their microphones, give them background and share whatever resources and knowledge he can. He's the guy you want next to you in the scrum, because you know he's got your back no matter whom you work for."

Mike grew up in Eloy, Arizona in a family of 10 children. After graduating from Santa Cruz Valley Union High School in 1979, Mike attended Central Arizona College, where he wound up as a staff reporter for school newspaper, "The CACtus." While at Central Arizona College, Mike also worked at KPIN (now KFAS), a Casa Grande radio station. One of his duties at KPIN included writing the "CoffeeGram," a one-sheet newsletter that he delivered in his 1973 Ford Maverick to local restaurants every morning.

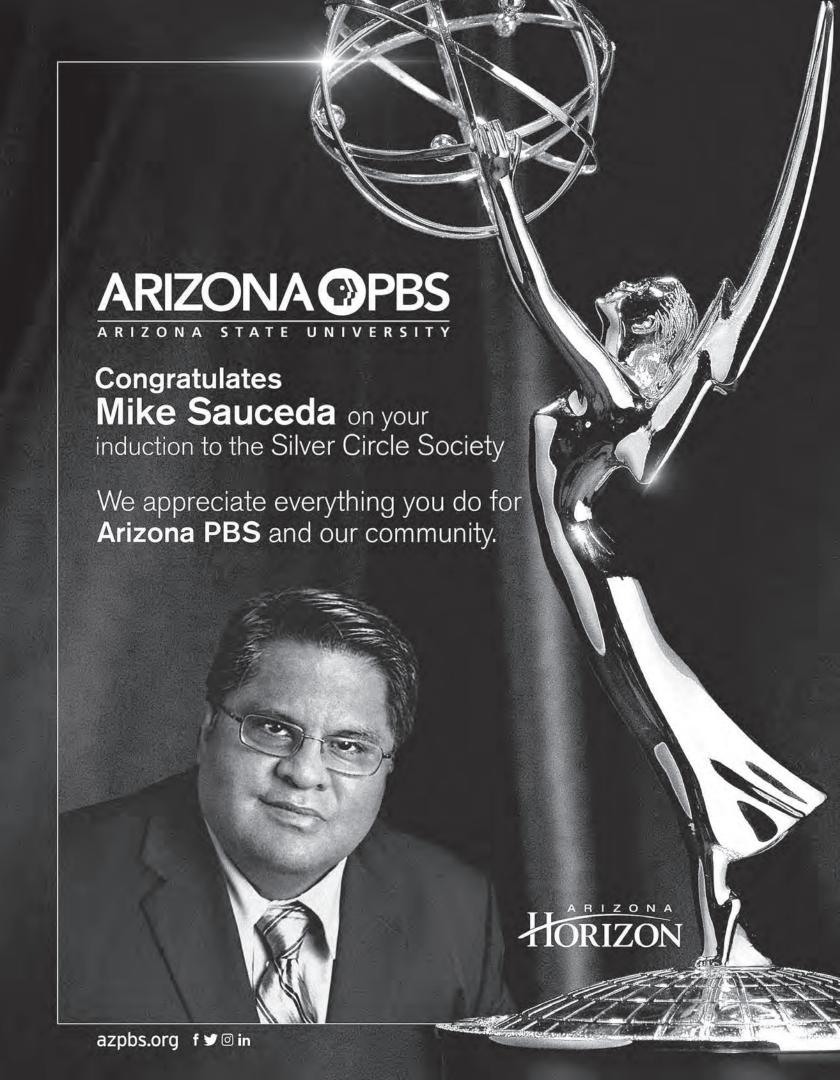

In 1984, Mike was hired to work at KOOL-FM radio as a reporter. He later worked at KOY-AM radio as a reporter, and then went on to KTAR-AM, where he worked for 24 years as a full- and part-time news anchor. In 1990, Mike went to work at KAET-TV as a producer/reporter for Arizona Horizon, where he has been ever since.

"It is a testament to Mike Sauceda's longevity in local broadcasting that he knows - and knows how to contact - so many movers and shakers in the Phoenix area," says

Arizona Horizon anchor Ted Simons. "Mike's Rolodex is considerable and exemplifies his many years of reporting and producing newscasts in the Valley. Mike's experience helps add context and institutional knowledge to the shows he has produced and the news stories he has helped put together. He knows where many of the bodies are buried in local politics, which especially benefits Arizona Horizon's mission of covering key public policy issues, a mission that Mike understands and has long embraced."

Mike has also worked at KJZZ radio, Skyview Satellite radio, done stories for PBS's Nightly Business Report and taught at ASU's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

"One thing I think everyone agrees with about Mike is that he is a genuinely nice guy," says Arizona PBS's Allysa Adams. "There is no hidden agenda underneath his warm and friendly demeanor. In a world where stress and deadline pressure can turn the best of us into crabs, Mike rarely has a bitter moment. He is as friendly at the press conference, asking about families and vacations, as he is in the office and the control room during shows when his smart barbs often breaks through the tension. He has a great sense of humor dropping current event jokes sprinkled with silly puns that often illicit groans. Somehow, the cynicism that usually seeps into journalists over the years has never made a home in Mike's psyche. He's a positive force in our news room and we feel lucky to have him on our staff."

GINA SANTIAGO

WHEN GINA SANTIAGO FIRST WALKED INTO THE OFFICES OF KTVW-TV

on December 4, 1989, she had no idea that 29 years later she would be regarded as a "pionera" of Univision Arizona.

Her introduction to Univision came as she was coordinating paid interns from a magnet program for the performing arts at South Mountain High School to run camera for a daily two-hour live morning show. She was teacher's assistant in the SMHS TV department. In February 1991, Univision asked Gina to stay on full-time as a floor manager and production assistant for Teleradio, a weekday morning show featuring then-KTVW anchor and general manager Jose Ronstadt. Since that time, Gina has been involved in almost every aspect of putting content on the air at KTVW. She has held a variety of positions ranging from floor director, producer of the 10 p.m. and weekend newscasts, producer and editor for news series, and director for a variety of shows, including live programs TeleDia, Noticias Univision AZ and Agenda Deportiva.

Gina has produced interviews of big-name Latin artists such as Celia Cruz, Jose Jose, Alejandro Fernandez, Veronica Castro and Larry Hernandez to name a few. She has produced in-depth reports on underground cockfighting, thoroughbred horse racing and psychic phenomena. She has traveled to Sinaloa, Mexico as part of a special series on the Narco Tumbas. She also participated in a report with a Mexican historian and owner of the drug traffickers' chapel that holds the "patron saint" of Mexican drug cartels, 'Jesus Malverde.' Gina's awards include a Telly and several Rocky Mountain Emmys for editing and producing.

Nowadays, Gina spends a majority of her time at Univision Arizona as the lead in developing creative concepts for clients, coordinate production, writing and directing commercials and branding and marketing the station.

"When one seeks counsel from Gina, time stops," says Univision Arizona anchor Heidi Renpenning. "She will attentively listen and meticulously analyze whatever you are asking her about. She is well respected and well loved by all those who know her."

Gina is one of the two Chapter leads for Univision's Women's Leadership Chapter (WLC) in Arizona. She assists the WLC mission to drive growth and innovation of Univision through recruitment, development and retention of diverse leaders, by holding monthly gatherings and inviting outside guests for all members to learn and grow from.

In addition to her work at Univision Arizona, Gina was an in-show graphics operator from 1994 to 2002 for the Phoenix Suns, Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Coyotes and Arizona Rattlers.

In her free time, Gina gives history art classes to a local elementary school, volunteers at Ballet Arizona and has served on the governing board of the Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter of NATAS since 2014.

SILVER CIRCLE INDUCTEE

DAVID JAMES

DAVID JAMES WAS HIRED AT KUTV in August of 1992. Over the last 27 years he has covered two NBA Finals, an NBA All-Star game and an NCAA Final Four. He traveled to Japan in 1998 and Australia in 2000 in preparation for the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City. David anchors KUTV weekend sports shows and helped launch the weeknight version of "Talkin' Sports" on sister station KMYU. From 2005-2009 he hosted the Utah Jazz pregame, halftime and post- game TV shows. He has been the TV Voice of Real Salt Lake soccer on KMYU since 2015 and for 17 years has partnered with Pat Kinahan to make "DJ&PK" a morning drive radio institution on 97.5/1280TheZone, the Utah Jazz flagship ra-

In 2012 David began introducing the Souper Bowl of Caring across Utah, asking people to donate some of their Super Bowl party budget to fight poverty. In 2014 KUTV adopted The Souper Bowl of Caring as a station initiative and focused on raising money to feed hungry children. They have collected more than $4 million dollars in cash and food, helping more than 100 schools open pantries across the state and assisting the Utah Food Bank in sending mobile food pantries to more than 70 schools.

David grew up in suburban San Diego and graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1986. His first full-time radio job was at KTMS/Y-97 in Santa Barbara where he called UCSB football games, hosted a sports talk show and anchored drive time sportscasts. In 1989 he was hired at KEYT-TV in Santa Barbara and he moved to KOVR-TV in Sacramento in 1991.

HE LIVES IN SALT LAKE CITY WITH HIS WIFE MARINA. THEY HAVE TWO CHILDREN, RYAN AND LIA.

GOVERNORS' AWARD

SILVER BULLET PRODUCTIONS

SILVER BULLET PRODUCTIONS IS A

501(c)3 educational film company that uses film as a vehicle for change. Through filmmaking workshops for New Mexico's tribal youth, SBP empowers students and encourages academic achievement. Through its award winning documentaries, Silver Bullet promotes awareness and preservation of culture and heritage. Shattering stereotypes and informing on issues relevant to sovereignty, environment, tribal leadership, and power of indigenous women, each film is an agent of change. SBP previously received an Emmy in 2013 for its documentary film "Canes of Power." With no employees, all monies raised by SBP are used to fund their programs and documentary films. Silver Bullet Productions has completed more than 50 educational film projects. The journey continues...

The Board of Governors is proud to award you the 2019 Governors' Award.

GOLD CIRCLE & SILVER CIRCLE SOCIETY

EACH YEAR, THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN SOUTHWEST CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS & SCIENCES

accepts nominations for the prestigious Gold & Silver Circle Society. The inductions take place at the annual Rocky Mountain Emmy® Awards Gala.

The Gold Circle recognizes similar individuals who have served in the industry, with the majority in the Rocky Mountain Southwest region, in an exemplary fashion for a minimum of 50 years. Most importantly though, is the contribution to the profession and to the community that the individual has made during that

The Silver Circle recognizes individuals who have served in the industry for a minimum of 25 years, with the majority being spent in the Rocky Mountain Southwest region. Individuals selected for induction have done more than work professionally for 25 years. They are the best and brightest in our business. Ideal candidates will also have extensive public service, mentoring, leadership and professional accolades.
